This game is very hard. The AI's must be set to hard and you cant change it. Its mostly luck. Wouldnt reccomend, unless you are very lucky.. ripley vac ban soon. When I first saw this game, I thought it would be just another run of the mill mmorpg, but after investing over 7,000 hours in this game, I can truly say this is one of the best fps experiences Ive had since SMITE. The chracters feel so fleshed out and you can really connect with them, which isnt a very popular trend in survival games like this. And I mean, for a card game, it really does feel like a whole different game to Hearthstone. I truly believe that blizzard has taken there company very seriously, and the result are masterpieces like this one. So if youre looking for a competitive dungeon crawl with great gameplay, I cant recommend a better driving game.
